AAIC Mission:

To support and promote avalanche forecasts, education, research, professional development, and networking of practitioners in the pursuit of healthy lifestyles and the reduction of unintentional injury and deaths.

AAIC Goals:

The AAIC strives to increase public awareness and safety through avalanche education, research, and the networking of avalanche professionals.

AAIC Objectives:

- Provide public avalanche forecasts and snow observation information.
- Provide high quality avalanche forecasting and rescue skills training.
- Coordinate snow observers and the posting of their snow, weather, and avalanche observations.
- Strengthen community connections between business, industry, government, search and rescue organizations, and winter recreation groups.
- Host practitioners' online data collection and exchange.
- Promote and facilitate snow and avalanche research.
- Promote and facilitate continuing professional development.

The Alaska Avalanche Information Center also does business as the Anchorage Avalanche Center, the Cordova Avalanche Center, the Haines Avalanche Center, the Hatcher Pass Avalanche Center and the Valdez Avalanche Center.
